Footnotes

KAP'S CHOICE, bumped at the start, rated a fast pace and a short lead on the backstretch, was pressured through the turn then steadily encouraged in the lane. CALL ME MR. BIG rated off the pace outside, bid widest into the turn then closed while lugging inward under a hard left drive to deep stretch before flattening stride. EVERYBODYWANTSONE came out making contact with Kap's Choice leaving the gate, gave chase from off the rail, came inside the drifting Son Of A Gun into the turn, angled out midstretch and finished evenly. MIDDLE BANK chased the pace about the three path then leveled off through the lane. GLACIER BAY pressured a fast pace three wide after a sharp break, continued to contest the turn though gave way midstretch. SON OF A GUN, a step slow to break, was urged toward contention inside, checked while attempting to get out entering the turn and showed no more effort from there.
